

Acute Care: 20 Extracts to get you through Colds, Flu, and COVID

In this episode, Megan Ethridge, RN, and I share the list of extracts we recommend in preparation for whatever this next wave of COVID in the midst of cold and flu season has to offer. Listen in as we guide you through each one and why it made our list. Discover more about each of these extracts on my Gemmo Memo series recorded earlier this year. You will also want to catch the upcoming episode, The latest news on Gemmotherapy for COVID. I want you to be safe and healthy in the months ahead and will be sharing my latest learnings right here as they unfold.

Exploring Polyvagal Theory: Pain and the Dorsal Vagal State

Have you sought help for physical pain through manual therapies only to find the pain relocates elsewhere in your body? If this sounds familiar, I invite you to listen to this exceptional conversation about pain. You may find that our discussion allows you to connect a few dots and consider alternative approaches to your pain.

The polyvagal theory helps us see and understand habitual emotional patterns enough to interrupt them. In this organic series of on the spot learning, Health educator and Gemmotherapy expert Lauren Hubele, Japanese Acupuncturist Maegan Lemp and Passionate Polyvagalist Cameron Scott explore the use of the Polyvagal Theory as a guide for selecting extracts.

Exploring Polyvagal Theory: How's your digestion?

How has 2020 treated your digestive system? Not so great you say? Even if your system was stellar before the start of the year I would agree there is far too much to digest. But what about this thought. Rather than focusing on the digestive organs themselves, consider heading a bit upstream and consider support for the Central Nervous system? Harmonizing the sensory input before it reaches your autonomic response may be one way to get ahead of common and challenging symptoms. Listen in and discover more about this interesting perspective on digestive symptoms and a gemmo or two for support.

Exploration of Polyvagal Theory: Heart Palpitations and your Autonomic Nervous System

Stephen Porges, founder of Polyvagal Theory tells us that feeling safe is transformative. I could not agree more but how might one experience a felt sense of safety when your heart is racing with palpitations? Your physician has informed you that your heart is fine but the symptom continues. That clear signal of danger leads you immediately to a sympathetic state no matter what you tell yourself. So what can be done? Listen in and discover a simple yet powerful technique along with a gemmo or two for support.
